The Cut Telephone Wires. BEFORE THE COURT AGAIN TO-DAY.

In the Court in General Term this morning the Safe Deposit Telephone case was up again. Messrs. C. G. M. Gywnn, and N. Wilson, for the Telephone Co., stated that they were desirous of some relief and repeated that the inconvenience of subscribers was felt very seriously.

Mr. Perry, for the Safe Deposit Co., said that they fully appreciated the inconvenience to the public, and were ready to do anything by which the public will be relieved, short of submitting to the destruction of their pavement, and were ready to consent to the wires being laid temporarily above the curb so that the work of laying the pavement would not be stopped.

No reply was made to this offer, and Judge

James said that if the Commissioners would state that if this injunction were removed they would or would not give the permit, the court would regulate its course.

No Right to Whip His Wife.

A LESSON THAT AN OLD COLORED MAN LEARNED IN THE POLICE COURT. Yesterday afternoon in the Police Court an old colored man, named Robt. Day, was charged with an assault on his young wife, Mary Day. When arraigned Robert said that he was only guilty of trying to make his wife obey him. His wife testifled that some one had been talking to her husband to make trouble in the ramily. When he band to make trouble in the family. When he came home Wednesday night they got on "cross-questions," and he whipped her with a large whip and scarred her face. Other witnesses gave similar testimony. The prisoner said: "I was only trying to make her obey me, which I have a right to do. I took a whip with a long lash on it and whipped her across the shoulder, but did not bruise her face."

"You have no right to whip your wife because she is your wife," said the judge, "and you must also understand that there is something which you have to obey, and that is law. You can have sixty days in jail."

TRUE ECONOMY

It is true economy to buy Hood's Sarraparilla, for "100 Doses One Dol'ar" is original with and true only of this popular medicine. If you wish to prove this, buy a bottle of Hood's Saraaparilla and measure its con-tents. You will find it to hold 100 teaspoonfuls, Now read the directions, and you will find that the average dose for persons of different ages is less than a teaspoonful. This is certainly conclusive evidence of the peculiar strength and economy of Hood's Sarsaparilla. "I took Hood's Sarsaparilla for loss of appetite, dyspepsis, and general languor. It did me a vast amount of good, and I have no heattancy in recommending it. J. W. WILLEPORD, Quincy, Ill.
